ON THE COVER Presto Photos

Our cover this week is a cross section of the Memorial Day activities in the towns of Mattapoisett, Marion and Rochester. Top left picture is the firing squad from the Sullivans as they saluted the dead at the monument at the Mattapoisett Library. Lower right is a scene from the parade route in Marion after the exercises at the monument located on the VFW grounds. The river race crews are represented in the remaining two pictures. The upper right photo is of the close finish. Only seconds separate these two crews as they approach the finish line.

WINNERS - Team of Arthur Benner and Otis Tripp stroke in powerfully to beat their own time of last year as they lead the field and win the race.

JUNIOR GRANGE NEWS

The members of the Mattapoisett Juvenile Grange held a worship service in the Grange Hall Sunday, June 2nd. Truman Cahill, chaplain of the Massachusetts State Grange, was the speaker and talked on the wonderful things created for us by God, such as the flowers, birds, trees and water, and emphasized the importance of saying "Thank You" to the Creator. "Giving and saying Thanks" was the important message he left with the large audience of Juniors and their friends assembled together.

Those taking part were the master, Barry Denham, and junior chaplain, Joseph Alves, who gave the Juvenile prayer.

A quartette comprised of Doris Fearing, Kathy Bradley, Francis Kelley and Edward Alves sang the Battle Hymn of the Republic in a most pleasing manner, with Mrs. Diane Spirlet at the piano.

This is the first time a Juvenile Grange worship service has been held in the State and it is hoped other Junior Granges will follow.

The service brought a large delegation from Pocasset Juvenile Grange, as well as Sippican Pomona, and State.

Refreshments of sandwiches and punch were served by the assistant matron, Mrs. Dorothy Harris; Mrs. Rebecca Downing, Mrs. Ruby Barber, with Doris Fearing, Home and Community Service chairman and members, during the social hour. Sweet Rocket, lilacs and poppies, with green candles, decorated the refreshment table.

A sincere expression of appreciation was extended to all from the worthy master, Barry Denham

"I VANT TO BE ALONE"

Mitsy, a glamorous week-end visitor to Mattapoisett, was chic and sleek and magnifique. This tawny female when walking down the street has the kind of a figure that literally stops traffic. Unfortunately, Mitsy fights with men. "Lancelot" had best approach this ocelot with extreme caution. Mr. and Mrs. Wilber G. Murray of Amawalk, New York visited Mrs. Murray's uncle, Mr. Frederick Manning of Mechanic Street, Mattapoisett over the week-end and they brought Mitsy along for the ride. The couple also has a male pet ocelot but the two fight. So, Mitsy rides in solitary splendor. The Murrays sent to South America for their unusual pets and have raised them from kittens. Mitsy is one year old and is a beautiful animal. Her coat is gold and brown and she resembles a small tiger. She has very large brown eyes. Mr. and Mrs. Murray brought her out of her cage in the back of the station wagon for pictures and she rolled in the grass like a playful kitten until the Murray's shepherd dog came along. Quick as a flash, Mitsy crouched low, she flowed along about an inch off the sidewalk, sprang and landed on the dog's back. An old hand at this sort of thing the dog dumped her off. He jumped in sparring, dog like, and received a swipe of Mitsy's paw and a businesslike hiss. He then retreated with dignity. Mrs. Murray said that the two often play together in this way. Mrs. Murray said that ocelots that are brought up from kittens remain tame all their life and make wonderful pets. They are a nocturnal animal. It was very difficult to get Mitsy to face into the sun for pictures of those liquid brown eyes for she obviously did not care for the light. After a few minutes of posing, she began to complain bitterly to her mistress. The Murrays are members of an ocelot club which has members all over the United States and in England.

BOY SCOUTS PREPARE DINNER

Boy Scout Troop 31 committee members and their wives sat down to a dinner prepared by six Boy Scouts of Rochester working on their cooking merit badge. A boiled ham dinner was served, commencing with tomato onion soup, ham, potato, carrots, cabbage, homemade biscuits, chocolate pudding, coffee and milk.

Cooking the dinner were Boy Scouts Robert Balzarini, Richard Faust, Alan Maccarone, Robert Lawrence, Raymond Daggett and Warren Meservey. This was the final test for the Boy Scouts working on the cooking merit badge. Dinner was served at Camp Rayford, where tables were set up in the pine grove.

The dinner was prepared by the six Boy Scouts under the expert culinary eye of Ernest Davoll

Robert Yuille, chairman of District 2 for the Massachusetts Congress of Parents and Teachers, has made plans to hold the annual Spring Conference next April in Rochester. Mrs. Yuille will be assisted by Mrs. Arruda and Mrs. Chamberlain.

Before concluding her talk, Mrs. Chamberlain commented on the small membership of the P-TA and said, "Your P-TA is only as strong as the number of persons who believe in it to become members. Your P-TA channeled their energies for the youth of Rochester this year--all they ask is your support." Plans are underway to hold a second Country Fair in August. Proceeds from last year's fair were used to purchase educational materials to be used by teachers as teaching aids.

Rochester P-TA sponsors the Girl Scouts Troop 165 and Brownies Troop 177, and they voted a sum of money enabling the Girl Scouts to visit Sturbridge Village on June 27.

Mrs. Arruda conducted a brief business meeting and announced Miss Carol Arenberg was awarded the Bernice Arenberg scholarship sponsored by the P-TA. The president said souvenir booklets for the Country Fair will be available and members are selling advertising space to be placed in the booklets. All materials for the booklets must be in by July 1.

MEMORIAL DAY ACTIVITIES

Both the river and the shore was crowded on Memorial Day as the largest crowd in years watched 18 teams compete for the James Hartley Memorial Day trophy. Pictured on Page 2 are the winners of the race, Benner and Tripp, as they dig through the glass-like river to lead the field to the finish at the Herring Weir. The race which started at Grandma Hartley's reservoir covers twelves miles of the river. Arthur Benner and Otis Tripp completed the run in a time of 1 hour, 46 minutes and 50 seconds, knocking more than 9 minutes from their time of last year. This team is now a two time winner and if they win next year, will be awarded the trophy to keep permanently. As always, there were some amusing highlights along the way. Several of the teams ran under a low foot bridge by gathering speed and then lying back flat in their boats. One boat decided to do this but at the last moment they found that they did not have room in the boat. The bow man sprang to the bridge. That shifted the weight so drastically in the frail craft that the bow rose to the sky. It lifted enough to clear the bridge so that instead of going under it the boat started to ride over it. It sank from the rear. Mishaps like this are all part of the course and are taken in stride. No team completes this race in the same condition that they were in at the start. The series of photos that we have here are from the first nine to complete the course.

Second, Ronald and Kenneth Carreau, 1 hour, 49 minutes and 24 seconds; third, Edgar Martin, Jr. and Earl O. Phillips, Jr., 1 hour, 55 minutes and 9 seconds; fourth, David Valley and Robert Flanders, 1 hour, 59 minutes, 45 seconds.

Other teams completing the course were Robert Hatch and Jerry Donahue, 2 hours, 1 minute; Allen King and Herbert LeFleur, 2 hours, 1 minute, 14 seconds; Barry Coggeshall and Crosby Hatch, 2 hours, 2 minutes; Warren
